How to earn your badges

1

Go on an adventure

Each tour or day out belongs to one of the ten badges. A snorkel trip is Ocean Explorer, a museum is Curious Mind.

2

Claim your badge

After the adventure, cut out the badge from the sticker page and glue it in, or color in the outline yourself.

3

Fill in your page

Write where you went, draw the best moment and give it a star rating. Ask a grown-up to sign it.

4

Climb the ranks

Every badge moves you up. Collect all ten and you earn the Legendary Explorer certificate at the back.

FOR GROWN-UPS

The parent checklist

The list we use for our own family trips. Most tours that go wrong for kids go wrong before they start: the wrong age, a long transfer or a missing change of clothes.

Before you book

- [ ] Check the youngest age that worked for other families, not only the legal minimum
- [ ] Count door-to-door hours, including pickup and transfers
- [ ] Check whether a stroller works or you need a carrier
- [ ] Read the cancellation policy and the weather rule
- [ ] Book big days for the morning, when kids have the most energy
- [ ] Leave an easy day after every long tour

The night before

- [ ] Confirm the pickup time and the exact meeting point
- [ ] Save tickets and the operator's phone number offline
- [ ] Charge phones and a power bank
- [ ] Lay out clothes, shoes and the day bag
- [ ] Tell the kids which badge they are going for tomorrow

The day bag

- [ ] Water bottles and more snacks than you think
- [ ] Sunscreen (reef-safe for the sea and cenotes), hats and sunglasses
- [ ] Swimsuits, rash guards and a small towel for water days
- [ ] A full change of clothes and a bag for wet ones
- [ ] Wipes, tissues and hand sanitizer
- [ ] Basic first aid and any medicine your kids normally need
- [ ] Cash for tips, lockers and small extras
- [ ] This book and a pencil case

On the day

- [ ] Arrive 15 minutes early and use the bathroom before you start
- [ ] Agree on a meeting spot in case anyone gets separated
- [ ] Put your phone number on a wristband or in your child's pocket
- [ ] Tell the guide your kids' ages so they can adapt
- [ ] Fill in the badge page that evening, while the memory is fresh

Ready for your next badge?

We read thousands of reviews and keep only the tours where real families say their kids had a great time. Every tour comes with the real age, the real pace and the badge it earns.
